Description

Akyga® AK-AV-18 is a USB Type C to HDMI cable that allows you to connect your smartphone or tablet to a TV or monitor. It is ideal for those who want to display a movie or present slides on a large screen. It allows you to use your phone like a regular computer. Simply connect a suitable smartphone with the Samsung DeX service or Huawei Easy Projection to use the most important applications you need for your daily work. What's more, the USB-C / HDMI cable is tuned to support 4K Ultra HD, so users can enjoy the highest quality images.
